MARSHALL TAKEN TO PENITENTIARY

Shows First Sign of Weakness While Waiting for Train.

Ben F. Marshall, murderer of the late P. G. (Gus) Nebhut, showed the first signs of cowardice and weakness yesterday, while, handcuffed and shackled to a fellow prisoner, he waited at the Katy depot for the train to arrive which was to bear him to his life time home, the penitentiary.

He bore up well until the beginning of the end. According to inmates of the jail, he appeared to be in the best of spirits throughout the day Saturday and made merry with them till far into the night. He is said to have acted pleasantly Sunday morning and stepped forward promptly when the officers called for him to make ready for the trip to prison.

He put forth his hand willingly to receive the handcuff and looked on with a cynical smile as the officers placed the heavy shackles on his leg and fastened the other end to the leg of another prisoner. He stepped forth from the jail door with the buoyant air of youth and courage and determination, with head erect and eyes that returned without flinching the inquiring gaze of every one he met.

The Same Courageous Man.

He was still the same man of courage who had faced an angry throng of people the day of his arrest, without a whimper or a sigh; the same Marshall who had set without a show of concern through a long trial, in the very shadow of the electric chair; the same man of nerve who sat unmoved while the foreman of the jury acknowledged in cold tones the verdict which meant life imprisonment in the gray walls of Oklahoma's penitentiary; the same man who had answered with firm voice, when asked if he had anything to say, "Not a word, Judge," and returned smilingly to his cell, with the voice of condemnation ringing in his ears. He continued to smile till he reached the depot and then, all at once, to the complete surprise of every one, he weakened.

The Spirit Broken.

He spoke no word, but his countenance was the countenance of despair. Eyes, lately lighted by the fires of hell itself, now had the look of a dead, the look of one whose life lately suggested defiance to all things earthly, now rested on a bosom torn with grief; hands which only recently had been firm while under deadly fire in the storm center of a perfect hail of bullets—now tremble like a dead leaf in autumn's gale.

It may be that the blossomy faces of the children in the large crowd around him reminded him of better days, of mother, of hours in Sunday school and hours at play with other boys who have made good in the same world in which he had failed so utterly. It might have been—who can tell?—that in the last moments of his stay in Ada the vision of a little tow headed boy with bright eyes and sunny smile whispered a word of sympathy to an erring father's heart, or a patient wife "who hears in happy dreams the footsteps of return."

Truly, the way of the transgressor is hard.

CARPENTIER IS HERE TO TRAIN

Confident He Will Whip Dempsey in Battle July Second.

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 16.—Georges Carpentier, Europe's heavy weight champion, arrived here today from France to prepare for his international battle with Jack Dempsey at Jersey City, July 2nd.

The challenger immediately was surrounded by a delegation of newspaper men and photographers. Most of the questions asked him were answered by an interpreter, but occasionally Georges would inject a direct reply. This was the case when he was asked who would win the big fight. Without a second's hesitation he replied, with a smile, "I."

His manager, Descamps, stated that Carpentier and his party would go direct to the training quarters on Long Island and would not leave until it was to proceed to Jersey City for the championship battle.

STUDENTS GIVE MAMMOTH SHOW

Girls in the Domestic Art Classes to Have an Active Part.

The High school in review! Tonight will be a great one for the Ada High school when every organization and activity pass in review, giving a brief outline, history or demonstration of the work accomplished during the school term. To do this nearly every teacher in the school and more than two-thirds of the students will be involved, making it one of the greatest events that has ever yet been undertaken.

Individual numbers will be given by Russell Boud, Dolly Gay, Anna Louise Shaw, George Bowman, Violet Moore, Elizabeth Cain and several others. Special and group numbers will be given by the band, glee clubs, quintet, orchestra, manual training department and athletic teams.

An extraordinary number will be that of the typewriter orchestra. This is the first time in history that a class in typewriting has undertaken to give an exhibition in this city on typewriters by keeping time to music. An excellent march is played by the students on their machines. It is worth the price of a show to witness this.

Style Show.

In connection with the review a style show will be given by the girls in the two domestic art classes. Beautiful dresses for afternoon wear, in both organdie and taffeta, will be shown, each garment being worn by the girl who made it. There will be about 25 girls take part in this event and some of the best work of this school is to be seen at this time.

The entire affair is under the supervision of Miss Nell McClure assisted by Prof. Penten and the other teachers. The day has been spent in getting ready for the big event and it is the duty of every interested citizen to be present at the Normal auditorium tonight and see this mammoth affair. No admission will be charged and it will start early as several hours will be used in giving it.

A VERY INOPPORTUNE TIME FOR CITY COUSINS TO VISIT UNCLE

SHOOTS WOMAN AND SLASHES HER THROAT

(By the Associated Press)

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 16.—Miss Billy Moore was shot and killed yesterday by John Morris, wealthy planter living near Collinsville, a suburb of Memphis, after shooting her four times, slashed her throat with a pocket knife as she lay dying in the yard at the Morris home. Morris then attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat and is now in a critical condition, in a hospital here. Miss Moore was killed at a dinner given by Morris to celebrate a supposed reconciliation with the young woman and also in observance of the first birthday of Billy, Morris' little son. Two sisters of Miss Moore were present. Before the dinner Miss Moore is said to have told her sister that Morris had threatened her life and was insanely jealous of her.

Building in City Still on Incline City Records Show

The building of residences in the city has been on the incline for the past four weeks. A good showing was made for the past week when more than 21,000 worth of permits were granted by the city clerk. Included in these permits were rights granted for some of the most up-to-date homes to be seen in the city and the work has already been started on most of them.

The following is a list of the permits granted, the amount of the residence and the location: M. Johnson, $2000, Dags addition; Emma Ala Stone Finley, $2500, Capitol Hill addition; S. C. Little, $2500, Sunrise addition; G. G. Overturn, $1500, Dags addition; S. A. Burk, $3000, original plat; F. R. Morgan, $1500, West Side addition; C. D. Murphy, $1000, Glenwood; Mrs. A. W. MARTIAL LAW IS NOW URGED FOR STRIKE DISTRICT

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Senator Sutherland of West Virginia called on Secretary Weeks today to urge him to promulgate the proclamation signed Saturday by President Harding declaring martial law in the strike area in West Virginia and Kentucky.

Secretary Weeks and Senator Sutherland called on President Harding at the White House to lay the situation before him and later Secretary Weeks called Governor Morgan on the long distance telephone to discuss the situation with him. The secretary said Major General Read, commanding the 5th army corps area, did not see a present necessity for sending federal troops to the strike district.

Dallas Trade Boosters To Be Here Tomorrow

Will Spend an Hour in City Getting Acquainted With Merchants.

The good side will be turned out tomorrow, when a train load of Dallas trade boosters on their annual tour thru Southern Oklahoma, halt in Ada for an hour.

This will be the first time the boosters of the Lone Star state have visited Ada en masse and, as first impressions are said to be the most lasting, every one is anxious to see that nothing is left undone that would add to the visitors' good opinion of the town.

The hour of their arrival has not been announced and likely will not be learned until tomorrow morning. A definite program has been arranged, however, and every business man and member of the Chamber of Commerce who wishes to join in welcoming their big brothers from the south should keep in touch with Secretary Walker of the Ada Chamber of Commerce, who will be able to advise the time of their arrival, either tonight or early tomorrow morning.

The Oklahoma Light and Power company will sound the whistle at their plant tomorrow to notify the members of the Chamber of Commerce when the Dallas Boosters have arrived in the city. All those desiring to be present when the visitors are welcomed should go to the offices of the Chamber of Commerce, where the whistle is sounded.

According to the prearranged program, which was suggested by the visitors themselves, they will march in a body from their special train behind the local Chamber of Commerce, where Hon. Tom D. McKeown, acting spokesman for assembled business men of Ada, will extend their welcome in a five minute address. One of the visiting boosters will respond to the address of welcome and the visitors will then break ranks and begin in an informal way the easy task of getting acquainted with the men and women who have built a city here.

It has been planned that each Ada business man shall wear a tag on the lapel of his coat, giving his name and the business in which he is engaged. This arrangement will make it easy for the visitors to pick out the men they wish to talk to and will save much time, which would otherwise be taken up with formal introductions.

Secretary Walker has secured a supply of tags which may be obtained by those who expect to join the crowd which welcomes the Dallas boosters. Get yours and be on hand—with the good side turned out.

FULL MEETING OF COUNCIL PROMISED

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON, May 16.—There may be a full meeting of the Supreme Allied Council for the purpose of discussing the situation which has arisen in Sicily as a result of the Polish revolt. Dispatches from Paris indicate that Premier Briand intends to lay the situation before the French chamber of deputies when it meets Thursday.

Advices over the week end appeared to indicate a cessation of fighting in Upper Sicily but there was nothing to show that the Poles were withdrawing from regions they occupied during the past week.

Newspaper comment here seems to be more moderate and reflected a disposition to advise Mr. Lloyd George and Premier Briand to reach an amicable understanding.

HOOD TIRE PLANT IS NOW WORKING 3 SHIFTS DAILY

WATERTOWN, Mass., May 15.—Evidence of marked improvement in the tire trade situation is shown by the increased activity of the Hood Rubber Company, manufacturer of Hood Tires and Tubes, which on May 9th will begin working three full shifts for the first time since last fall.

During the past week all of the former experienced tire makers were reemployed. New men are being added, and it is planned to continue hiring additional help, until the maximum production of the two big Hood Tire plants is reached.

Orders for Hood Tires will be sufficient it is stated, to warrant maximum production for the remainder of the year. The tube ticket also, has shown a corresponding increase.

A part of this increased production which has been accorded by the trade to the new Hood Ford Size tire, known as the Yellow Arrow, but orders in large quantity are also in hand for both the Cord Tire and the well known Extra-Ply Fabric Tires made by this concern.

OIL MEN PLEAD FOR A STOPPAGE OF PRODUCTION

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 16.—Representatives of the approximate one hundred oil producers companies in the state met here this morning in the state corporation commission chamber and perfected plans for laying before the commission a plea for the stoppage of oil production in the state. Both independent producers and the largest companies are represented. At a hearing this afternoon testimony relative to the condition of the oil industry in the state will be produced by a committee named at the morning session.

SOLDIERS COMB KENTUCKY WOODS

Will Attempt to Locate Base of Supplies of the Fighters.

(By the Associated Press)

WILLIAMSON, W. Va., May 16.—Kentucky militiamen recently arriving in the Williamson fighting zone have started combing the wooded mountain section and already have arrested five men, according to reports reaching Sheriff Pinston's office today. The men were taken to Pikesville, Kentucky, the reports state.

For the present, it was said, the militia will devote their efforts to apprehending those who have been engaged in the fighting, but will make an effort to locate the base of supplies, according to officials here.

Little firing was reported this morning along the battle line between McCarr, Kentucky, and Rawlings, West Virginia.

GOVERNMENT WINS ITS CASE

Increased Capital Must Be Considered in Corporation Profits.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The government today won in the supreme court its contention that increased value of any capital asset must be considered in a corporation's profits when taxes were computed.

The court's decision was given in the appeal of the Loblith Iron works from a ruling of the treasury that one hundred ninety thousand dollars in 1914 must be returned in the 1917 report at ten million dollars and a profits tax be paid on the difference.

The opinion sustained this ruling. "The meaning of the act as to invested capital is clear," the court said. It was to cover actual property, disregarding anything that does not change the form of the investment.

Hundreds of millions of dollars in excess profits taxes were involved in the suit which was characterized by a high government official as the most important suit affecting federal finances to arrive in several decades.

The court was unanimous in its decision, except that Justice McReynolds concurred only in the result.

FEDERAL TROOPS NEEDED IN W. VA. STRIKE ZONE

(By the Associated Press)

CHARLESTON, West Virginia, May 16.—Governor Morgan of West Virginia said here last night that federal troops were needed as "bad as ever" in the Mingo county battle zone.

"I have the promise of the war department," he continued, "that troops will be sent Monday, if they are still necessary. Saturday night's truce evidently means nothing and I cannot see that the situation is greatly changed one way or the other."

OKLAHOMA WEATHER.

Tonight and Tuesday partly cloudy. Probably local showers in extreme west portion. Rising temperature.

NEW OIL TRUST NOW ORGANIZED

Many Local Business Men Join in For Development.

The officials interested today announced the virtual completion of the Pontotoc Petroleum Trust, a new organization of oil men who have secured acreage around the Carter-Lowry-Laselle (syndicate's well, and who will begin drilling at an early date.

The organization was promoted by members of the original syndicate in order that the business men of the city who are interested in the field and the development of the oil industry in this section might be given an opportunity to get into the business without any great outlay of money.

The new Trust will have a tract of forty acres on the Hatcher farm and four other tracts, one in Sec. 28-5-5, one in Sec. 7-4-5, one in Sec. 10-4-5 and one in Sec. 25-5-4. This will give them acreage entirely surrounding the discovery well, which ought to make certain that oil will be found on at least part of the acreage.

The trustees of the new organization are C. H. Rives, H. W. Wells, W. H. Abernathy, J. L. VanDissen and B. A. Laselle. The Trust is capitalized at one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand units of one hundred dollars each. Already on the list of subscribers for units of the new organization are the names of Roy I. Carter, Geo. Lowry, B. A. Laselle, C. H. Rives, H. W. Wells, W. H. Abernathy, J. L. VanDissen, H. N. Lane and others. It is stated by the directors that over half of the stock units have been subscribed to date.

For the present the offices of the Pontotoc Petroleum Trust will be located over Stanfield's grocery, and the members of the Carter-Lowry-Laselle syndicate who are members of the new organization will be in charge.

One of the members of the new trust, in conversation with a News reporter this afternoon, stated that there are many business men of the city who are anxious to get into the oil game in some way, while the opportunity to make big money out of small investments is still here, and for that reason the new company is organized in such way as to take care of as many of these as possible. Not only that but some of the best acreage of the original syndicate has been put into the new plan which makes it doubly inviting, for the very good reason that it is close up to the discovery well and some have been secured in every direction from the well.

Just as soon as the final plans of the organization have been perfected, derricks will be built on some of the tracts and drilling operations commenced. Arrangements are already being made to secure a rotary rig from the Wichita, Texas, field.

L. D. Jeter Buys Ada Seed & Feed Store from Payne

The Ada Seed and Feed stock, at 175 South Broadway, formerly owned by Paul Payne, is now owned by L. D. Jeter. The sale was made Saturday afternoon and the new owner is now in charge of the business.

It is said that Mr. Jeter will move his grocery stock from the location on South Broadway to the building at 115 South Broadway and will operate the two businesses jointly.

Mr. Payne has disposed of his growing business here, that he may devote more attention to his position as salesman of Blue Ribbon beer in Okmulgee and Okfuskee counties, where he has an exclusive territory.

Unless there is greater feeling for morality, this nation will drift toward free love.—R. G. Jones, Cleveland School Superintendent.

THE WATER FAMINE

The water famine which Ada experienced from yesterday afternoon until about two o'clock this afternoon, lasting more than twenty-four hours, furnishes food for reflection.

With no supply of water in reserve, and with two joints of the main Bird's Mill line broken near Jack Fork, the town was as dry as the proverbial "powder house" for a full day.

If fire should have broken out during the time, about all the citizenship or the fire department could have done would have been to sit and watch the flames complete their ravages.

Until this break came it is doubtful if very many people were aware of the fact that the new reservoir near the brick plant would not hold water. The News, at least, was under the impression that the job was complete and that the reservoir was full of water and had been for months.

We learn, however, that it will not hold water and that the commissioners have so far been unable to get the contractors to return and fix it so it will hold water.

We don't know where the blame is for this condition, and we have no prescription to remedy it, but we do know that a deplorable condition prevails and that something ought to be done to remedy it, and it ought to be done as soon as possible.

Under such circumstances the city stands in danger of burning to the ground without any means of prevention, and, in addition, the health of the whole city is in jeopardy with water mains and sewers stagnant and at a standstill for ever twenty-four hours. Where's the trouble, and what's the remedy?

SCHOOLS OR NO SCHOOLS

The annual election for the maintenance of the public schools of this city has been called for tomorrow, May 17. This action has been taken by the board of Education in accordance with the requirements of the school laws of this state, when a levy of five mills is found inadequate for the needs of the schools. The budget for the year 1921-1922 was passed upon sometime ago by the board of Education, and to meet the requirements of this budget it was found necessary to ask the qualified voters of this school district to vote the limit of ten additional mills. The patrons of the public schools and the friends of public education are, therefore, called upon to vote the levy in order that the work now being done in the public schools of this city may be continued. The levy asked for this year is the same as was voted last year by a majority of fourteen to one. The same endorsement of the splendid work being done in the schools of this city should be given this year, for the demand for public education is just as imperative and the needs of our schools just as urgent as ever before.

As citizens of a progressive city, known because of its schools and our interest in schools, we can not afford to let the educational interests of our city want, however interested we may be in its industrial or commercial life. We must recognize the fact that around our schools is built every other interest. If, therefore, our interest in the public schools of our city extends no further than a commercial interest, we cannot afford to let them suffer for lack of funds.

The schools have been crowded this year and have suffered the results of such a condition. Several rooms have had an attendance of from 50 to 70 children and four grades have been crowded into two rooms, in charge of two teachers, in the frame building on the high school grounds. The board of education has found it necessary to increase the teaching force by at least nine teachers to relieve this condition. The employment of these additional teachers for the new school building which will be ready by the first of September, has increased the budget by ten thousand dollars, to say nothing of the upkeep and running expenses of this additional building. This fact alone accounts for a large part of the increase in the budget this year over the preceding year. And still we are not living up to our duty and obligation to give every child of school age in this district the advantages of a public school education.

There are more than five hundred children in the district who have not enrolled in school this year. If we were living up to our full duty, we would be building still another school house and voting a larger levy to place every child in school. It is a great deal cheaper to make useful law abiding citizens of them than it is to build jails and eleemosynary institutions for them when they have become the wrecks of men and women. The public schools of this city yield greater returns for the money invested in them than any industrial or commercial enterprise in it.

We owe it to our children, we owe it to ourselves, we owe it to the good name and reputation of our city to go to the polls tomorrow and vote the excess levy the board of education has asked us to vote. We have never failed to do so and we must not fail this time. When we have voted the levy we will have done our duty just as every other city in this state has done or will do before the close of this month. Frankly stated, it is a question of schools or no schools; it is up to us to make the choice by voting and voting right.

A QUEEN VOTES

The Queen of Belgium cast her first vote on Apr. 24, in a polling place in the Street of the Twelve Apostles, in Brussels. When she alighted from her automobile there were five women ahead of her, standing in line. An election official recognizing Elizabeth, rushed up and insisted that she come forward and cast her ballot immediately. She refused; and took her place in the line.

This was an event of historic interest. Other Queens may possibly have gone to the polls and voted, like ordinary women, in these latter years, but does anyone recall such an incident? No less significant is the report that the women voters now registered in Belgium outnumber the men by 700,000.

Both facts are of particular interest in comparison with the situation across the Belgian border, in the little neighboring monarchy of Holland. There, the people seem to be weary of Queens, and are arranging things so that women hereafter may not occupy the throne. Feminism is not popular in Holland. The Hollanders might feel differently about it if they had lost as many men in the war as Belgium.

On reading Monday's papers, it appears that Sunday is the day of rest—and arrests.

In The Oil Fields

Dow Brothers See Well.
F. G. and W. M. Dow, two brother operators of the Texhoma field, were at the discovery well this morning when the oil gushed 15 feet over the top of the casing and returned to Ada with their clothing slightly greased, but with great faith in appearances. They will have their hats in the ring ere many moons.

Lane Coming.
Harry Lane will arrive from Wichita Falls, Texas, this afternoon, with three car loads of boosters who are interested in things around Ada.

If everybody in the world was like Harry the lawyers would go out of business overnight. During his stay here he has made a multitude of friends who like a booster and a "straight guy." May his tribe increase.

Val Mullen Here.
Val Mullen, ex-mayor of Ardmore, has been here a couple of weeks, looking things over. Val and his brother have spotted a location on the J. S. Mullen farm, in 5-5-5, where S. P. Smith will start a well as soon as a rig can be built.

Rotary Shipped.
The rotary rig to be used by the Abernathy-Laselle Trust company on the test in 8-4-5 was shipped from Burkburnett yesterday and should be ready to begin operations within a few days.

This test will go to the neighborhood of the Carsell sand with the rotary and be finished with a standard. The company expects to pick up the pay sand at approximately the same depth as that at which it was found in the 32-5-5 test. The derrick has been completed and all that is needed now is the rotary rig.

More Tanks Coming.
A carload of 500 barrel tanks was shipped from Burkburnett yesterday to George Lowry at this city, one of the owners of the Carter-Lowry-Laselle well in 32-5-5, and will be set up as soon as they arrive, to help take care of the 37 gravity grease which comes from the discovery well.

Mr. Lowry will arrive from Muskogee this afternoon, where he has been in conference with members of the Lowry Oil corporation, of which he is president. It is said that extensive operations are being planned on the holdings of that company, northwest of Ada.

Carter Returns.
Roy L. Carter of Wichita Falls, Texas, one of the original owners of the Carter-Nance-Laselle syndicate, returned from Wichita Falls today, with the announcement that he has arranged to have two rotary outfits shipped to Ada to be used on his holdings in the local field.

The territory northwest of Ada is considered ideal for rotary work and it is probable that most of the wells drilled in the vicinity of the producer in 32-5-5 will be started with the rotary outfit.

Mr. Carter visited the discovery well this morning and said to a representative of the News: "Lots of Oil and on salt," a few minutes after he returned to the Harris. Carter is a man of few words and many dollars. He doesn't say much with his mouth, but he makes his money and his judgment talk.

TO PUT ON PUMP.
Tubing will be set at the discovery well in 32-5-5, tomorrow, and the well will be put on the pump as soon as possible. Everything needed is on hand and within the week a constant stream of liquid gold should be pouring into the thousand barrel tanks which have been built to take care of it.

Invaders.
Robert S. Ogilvy of Chicago, the vice-president, and B. F. Wood of Muskogee, the Oklahoma manager of the Invaders Oil company are in the city today, conferring with local capitalists and investigating matters in the Ada field.

The Invaders recently acquired a portions of the holdings of the Carter-Lowry-Laselle syndicate and are planning on increasing their acreage in the Ada field. Mr. Ogilvy represents a number of Chicago capitalists, who wish to invest here if they can get a desirable foothold.

The Invaders owns 200 tank cars and a two hundred thousand barrel steel storage at Burkburnett, together with a refinery capable of handling, temporarily at least, the entire production of the local field.

The company also owns two standard and two rotary outfits, now in the state of Oklahoma, and two of the outfits will be shipped here for service in the Ada field, as soon as the men who control the company's business can decide which is the most practical for drilling in the territory northwest of Ada.

The Invaders is one of the real progressive oil development concerns doing business in the Oklahoma and Texas fields and their coming is heralded with pleasure by those who wish to see the Ada field in good hands.

Estate Tax Valid.

(By the Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, May 16.—The estate tax provided in the revenue act of 1916 was held valid today by the supreme court in passing upon the appeal of executors of the estate of the late J. H. Purdy of New York.

"If any other country can survive the United States can prosper," says Chairman Gary of the Steel Corporation. Which is a bit of sound sense, the truth of which we are apt to overlook when times are a little out of joint in the United States.

NORMAL SENIORS RECEIVE SERMON

Inspiring and Helpful Address Delivered to Graduates.

One of the most impressive and religious baccalaureate sermons ever preached here was that delivered at the Normal auditorium yesterday morning for the East Central State Normal college graduating class of 1921 by Bishop Theodore Payne Thurston.

There was a large audience present to witness this program, which is a milestone in the life of the many new graduates from the college. The class, though not as large as some classes preceded them, was of a high standard and many noble young men and women were addressed at this time. There were 57 in the senior class, 16 in the senior prep class, and one student to receive his degree, the first ever to be given by the school.

Inspiring Sermon.
The sermon was inspiring and helpful and was delivered in a forceful manner. Bishop Thurston is a scholar and orator, having had much experience in both religious and education circles. The sermon delivered by him was one of the ablest given in the city.

In addition to the sermon a delightful vocal solo was given by Miss Natalie Manville, "The Lord is My Light." Rev. H. M. Woods, the new pastor of the First Christian church read the scripture lesson and gave the invocation.

First Degree Is Given.
John Zimmerman, the first student of the Normal to receive a degree was granted his B. A. degree this term. He is to be congratulated for having won this honor.

The total number of graduates from the school this year will be about 80, and the largest class previous to this was the class of 1920 which totaled 69, who received diplomas from the senior class. The record made by the school this year is a good one and it is justly proud of its record.

Another New Record.
Another new episode in the history was the granting of high school diplomas for the first time at the end of the senior-prep year. These diplomas are equivalent to a regular high school diploma. The sixteen young men and women to get these diplomas have put a new page in the history of the school, which will be added to each year.

Commencement Exercises.
The commencement exercises for both classes will be held in the Normal auditorium Wednesday morning at 10 a. m. The class address will be delivered by Dr. Ira Hilton Jones of Still water. Dr. Jones is one of the ablest speakers in the southwest, having served as the headliner for the Redpath-Horne chautauqua all of last year and is billed for the circuit for this larger this season. Other number will be given at this time in connection with the class address by members of the class.

HOUSE AND SENATE TRY TO GET TOGETHER

(By the Associated Press.)

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 16.—Conference committees of the senate and house of representatives again today took up the task of adjusting discrepancies in the two major appropriation bills of more than three million dollars. Conferences which started Saturday and continued over Sunday availed nothing, according to statements of conferees. Members of the conference committee said after adjournment yesterday that it would be impossible to report out either bill today.

Items on the institutional bills were taken up separately, members of the committee said, but no decision was reached. Consideration of the department appropriation bill has not been taken up.

The house is expected today to take action on the report of the oil and gas investigation committee made late Saturday in which it was charged that storage capacity for oil in the state totaling twenty-five million barrels is idle.

Mrs. Greenman is a member of the Royal Neighbors lodge, having joined the Sunflower lodge No. 750 at Springfield, Mo., several years ago. She is running the American rooms in connection with the cafe and made an emphatic statement that they would be conducted in a respectable, first class manner.

She expects to make the cafe one of the best in the city and wishes to thank all her friends and customers who have helped her in the past and will be glad to see them again. Her kitchen and all parts of the building are open to inspection.

Looking Backward.
Grief mellowed life; softening the bright glare of constant happiness. The summer day Oppresses, till the banks of green and gray Assemble in the southwest, the stirred air Comes cool from off cloud canyons, and the flare Of silent lightning precludes rain's foray; And he has glimpsed life's breadth who this can say: "Oh joy and sorrow I have had my share." The rain that falls upon the soul's dark soil But makes it wield the richer to the toll; Compassion's violet flower blooms in shade. Where the soft ferns of patience are arrayed, The soul that watches life's black storm-clouds boil. Knows the dignity of being unafraid. —Edwin Southerland.

LOCALS DEFEAT REDSKIN TEAM

Williams' Pitching Feature of Game Resulting in 10-3 Victory

Another choice scalp was added to the belt of the locals yesterday afternoon, when they defeated Brown's all-Indian team by a score of 10-3 on the local diamond. The first three innings were fast, Ada leading with one hard-earned score, made in the third. In the first of the fourth the visitors began to find Wilson and filled the bases early. Two Texas leaguers resulted in two scores and Williams was placed on the mound to finish the game. His left handed control was easily the feature of the game and the precision with which the Seminoles laid it down became almost monotonous.

In the fourth Ada made three runs, one of which was earned, while the other two were due to a multiplicity of fumbles. Several balloon ascensions marked the last of the fifth. Rutledge set the pace for the home team with a clean home run, with one man on. Zip West made third on a long one over center and could easily have made it home. Cal Sparks followed Zip with a three bagger and the Indians placed Long in the box. He pulled his tribesmen out of the hole and held the locals to two additional scores, which were made in the next inning.

The Indians play a splendid game and the large crowd of fans who witnessed the play were well pleased with the exhibition. Husky athletes all, well trained, with the determination characteristic of their race, they have started their world tour with one galling defeat the first day off the reservation, but those who saw their action yesterday agree on the prediction that as the season grows older they will be dangerous company for the fastest paleface artists they cross swords with.

Give Storm Dance.
At the end of the fifth inning a tremor ran through the crowd when two dozen swarthy redskins, wearing only breech clouts, with fantastic ribbons of red streaming from girdles about their necks marched to the vicinity of home base, chanting weird tribal songs of another day and age and at the sound of a peculiar, blood curdling whistle, formed a circle around two ancient members of their tribe and gave a brief but impressive exhibition of the storm dance of the Seminoles.

Each warrior was armed with two of the peculiar hickory sticks which are used by the contestants in the native Indian ball game. Many of those who participated in the storm dance were young bucks, cunning, active, strong, eager for the fray, while others were well advanced in years, approaching the age at which a white man usually considers himself disqualified for the more strenuous duties of life. In the mad scramble of the storm dance, however, age and youth were one, and no one could distinguish from their action which of the "nature's noblemen" were young.

This brief exhibition was given as an indication of what might be seen on a larger scale at the Fair Grounds this afternoon, where the Indians are playing a game of their native Indian ball, a game seldom seen off of the reservations.

Will Continue Tour.
When the native game is completed here today the Indians will leave Ada in their special Pullman cars to complete their tour, which will take them to the larger cities of the south and west before they make a swing through the eastern states, where the mere sight of a "redskin" is enough to draw a large crowd.

Louis C. Brown, the young chief of the Seminoles, selected the material for the two teams, which travel with him, from among his tribesmen. The team which plays the great American game will play the local team at the cities on his schedule, the afternoon of one day, while the native Indian game will be played the following by the experts chosen for that purpose.

Brown, himself an expert base ball player, was slightly injured here yesterday, when he and Cover collided at first base. Cover, running at great speed, ran into Brown who was watching an approaching ball and got in the runner's way. Cover's head struck Brown in the mouth, cutting a deep gash in his lower lip and putting him out of the game, temporarily. Rowdies Refuse to Pay.

A small flurry of excitement was created while the change was being made from the fifth to the sixth inning, when some cheap rowdies refused to pay the price of admission. No officer was on hand to take charge of them and they were permitted to remain through the game. Such a situation is not apt to recur, as the local manager expects to have an officer on hand at all future games.

The Game.

CONSTANTINOPLE GRAD STUDIES ENGLISH AT TULSA

The University of Tulsa has a unique student in the English department, a foreigner, and a graduate of the University of Constantinople.

Ares Araches Charklian, was born in Armenia, his mother being an Armenian and his father a native of France. He was educated in the French schools, and then went to Constantinople where he entered the University at that place. After a year he returned to France and entered the University of Lyons, where he stayed one year. Then he returned to the University of Constantinople. At the outbreak of the war he was retained as a civil prisoner. He finished his work in the University and then held a position as constable of an Ottoman bank.

Four months ago Mr. Charklian and his mother came to America, by way of a nineteen day trip to Athens and Versailles. He came to Tulsa to be near a sister who lives at Sand Springs. Another sister lives in Detroit and a brother is in business in Constantinople. His father is dead.

Mr. Charklia is 28 years old, speaks French, Greek, Armenian, Turkish, understands German, and in the last two months has learned English under the tutorage of Miss Aehsah Gamble, of the English department. This remarkable progress is due, according to his instructor, to the wonderful drill he has had in foreign languages, it being unnecessary to take up a grammar at all. He works eight hours a week with his teacher and through strict concentration he has come to know the English language in a very short time. At the present time he writes for the Armenian Magazine in this country and also abroad. He holds a Doctor of Philosophy degree from the University of Constantinople, is a member of the International Bar, and is interested in American Law. He expects to return to Constantinople in a year from now but ultimately he will make America his home. In discussing the two countries Dr. Charklian said he liked Constantinople because the climate was delightful, but he liked America because the people were delightful.

PRESBYTERIANS WILL ASSEMBLE FOR SESSION

WINONA LAKE, May 16.—The 132d General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church will meet here Thursday and continue until May 29.

Nine large presbyteries have united in endorsing an overture, which will be presented to General Assembly, asking for a change in the form of Presbyterian government, relative to representation in General Assembly. They ask that commissioners be elected for two years instead of one, and that one-half of the number so elected shall be held over to the following Assembly.

The presbyteries endorsing this overture include Brooklyn, Nassau, Cayuga, Cincinnati, Minneapolis, Morris and Orange St. Louis, Monmouth, Syracuse and Zanesville.

Two important reports will be made relative to the success or non-success of the overtures sent down by the 132 Assembly regarding the eligibility of women to serve as deacons and the desirability of co-operating in the Evangelical Plan of Church Union. On April 29 the vote on the eligibility of women was 119 in favor and 187 opposed; on evangelical union 78 in favor and 104 opposed.

On the Friday preceding the opening of General Assembly, the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions conducted its usual Home Mission Council, which will continue in session until May 18th.

The second largest pre-assembly conference will be held in the interest of evangelism under the auspices of the Committee on Evangelism. Nearly 400 persons will be brought to Winona Lake for a two-day evangelistic session.

A joint pre-assembly conference will be held by the Board of Foreign Missions and the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions. Other boards and agencies which will have pre-assembly gatherings include the General Board of Education, the Board of Church Extension, the Committee on Sabbath Observance, the Men's Work committee, the New Era Committee and the Committee on Vacancy and Supply.

General Assembly begins its sessions May 19. Many overtures will be presented. Rochester presbytery has endorsed an overture asking that there be included in the Presbyterian annual budget only those boards and agencies under direct general assembly control, to be effective from April 1, 1922.

Several presbyteries ask general assembly to merge the Presbyterian board of Home Missions. The request is made, according to the overture.

ecture, so that "in the Presbyterian Church all races will be handled as part of one great problem and no one race will be singled out by the Presbyterian Church."

Czecho-Slovakia is now a republic. Because of this fact and because there are great mission opportunities in that land, Steuben presbytery overtures ask that this republic be included in the Year Book of Prayer for Missions for special study and appeal.

Colorado Presbyterians are anxious that greater emphasis be placed on Christian Education. Colorado Synod has prepared an overture asking that the attention of college students be turned to Christian statesmanship.

Chicago, Washington City and Florida presbyteries will unite in an overture asking for investigation of the whole matter of homes for aged convalescents and orphans, with a view to better and more systematic administration of such homes.

Frank McClintock Released on $10,000 Bond Saturday P. M.

Frank McClintock of Roff, who was bound over for trial in the district court on a charge of murder last week, was released on $10,000 bond Saturday afternoon, after Judge Bolen had reviewed the case, in habeas corpus proceedings.

McClintock is charged with the murder of George Martin at Roff, the night of May 2. When he gave himself up to the officers at Roff the night of the shooting, he is said to have said that he shot Martin in self defense.

Martin is said to have said that McClintock "murdered him in cold blood," but two eye witnesses who testified at the preliminary trial described the scene of the shooting in such a way that was beneficial to McClintock's defense.

The case will come up for trial at the October term of district court.

Facts About the Counties

Each day some facts will be printed about an Oklahoma county in their alphabetical order.

CHOCTAW—The county lies entirely in the Red River region and comprises 505,600 acres. It has 295,340 acres in farms; 191,928 acres in cultivation; 16,260 acres in pasture and 87,152 in unimproved land. The average altitude is 616 feet.

The surface of the county is slightly east of south, drainage into the Red river. Three distinct soils are found, the Red River bottom land being a red, rich, sandy loam, and the soil in the center of the county a sandy nature, dark, rich and loamy and produces all kinds of crops. The northwestern portion is known as the black wax land.

Agricultural developments began in 1900. The county was settled for the most part by people from adjoining counties. The Kiamichi river furnishes an abundance of pure water, the river being fed by mountain springs. It is altogether an agricultural county, stock raising and the dairying industry rapidly following. The leading crops according to their acreage are cotton, corn, oats and prairie hay. A considerable acreage of peanuts is also planted. Lime-

OPENING OF LOCK BOX NEXT MOVE IN DEVEREAUX CASE

(By the Associated Press)

TULSA, May 16.—A safety deposit box in a downtown bank was to be opened today as the next move in the investigation of the circumstances surrounding the death of Judge John Devereux and the disappearance of a ten thousand dollar note signed by one of his law partners. The box is the one held in connection with the judge's death, say they took the note two days before the judge died.

Officials admitted that if the story of the two women told, that the box was empty after the note was removed, is true they will be plunged deeper than ever in the mystery. It had been practically established early today that the note was the bulk of the dead man's fortune.

Royal Rooms Center of Interest During Week-end for Cops

An interesting assortment of cases were brought before the mayor as a result of the week-end haul that is a regular and usual thing with the city cops, so to speak. There were only three who paid good money into the city treasury at the request of the mayor and one who will be given a trial today.

Two were arrested at the Royal Rooms for consorting. They were C. C. McCanahan and Mrs. Lee Anderson, both paying a fine of $24.75 each. Tony Frazier was arrested for being drunk and on request paid a fine of $8.75.

The most important case to come up was that of J. T. Allen, one of the owners of the Royal Rooms who is to be tried today on conducting a disorderly house. The time of the trial is set at 4:30 and as considerable evidence has been gathered by the police against Mr. Allen, the trial will be interesting. It is reported that the rooms have been conducted in this manner for some time by the present owners.

A REVIVAL OF METHODISM IN OKLAHOMA

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 16.—Forty-eight Oklahoma business men, twenty-seven of the state's leading ministers, and three of the south's leading educators started on speech making tours throughout Oklahoma this week in the interest of the Christian education movement of the Methodist Episcopal Church, south. This force of speakers is augmented by an army of several hundred minutemen and by Rev. R. E. L. Morgan, directing head of the campaign.

Every county in the state is to be covered and by the time the gong sounds for the opening of the campaign in May 29, nearly every Methodist congregation in the state will have heard an outside speaker outline the whys and hows of the appeal.

Director Morgan speaks in Altus, Elmer, Olustee, Blair, Davidson, Mountain View and Hugo, and next week he will make a number of speeches for the movement in the Clinton district.

Dr. O. E. Goddard of Nashville, Tenn. is scheduled to address church mass meetings during his stay in the state at Vinita, Choteau, Pryor, Wagoner, Muskogee, Checotah, McAlester, Holdenville, Shawnee, Ada, Atoka, Durant and Hugo.

Alfred F. Smith, editor of the Christian Advocate, St. Louis, one of the most forceful speakers in the Southern Methodist church and Dr. J. J. Stowe of national campaign headquarters, began their tour of the state on Tuesday of this week. Mr. Smith spoke at Clinton on the 17th, Hobart on the 18th and Mangum on the 19th.

Friday he speaks at a big meeting in Altus, Saturday he will speak at Frederick, Sunday morning at Chickasha, Sunday night at Lawton, and on Monday night the 23rd Mr. Smith will speak at a monster mass meeting in Oklahoma City.

Dr. Stowe opened his tour with a speech Tuesday at Purcell, Wednesday he spoke at Wynnewood, Thursday at Marietta and the rest of his itinerary includes El Reno, Temple, Comanche, Duncan, Tulsa, Sigler and Poteau.

W. C. Murray of Oklahoma City is in charge of the financial campaign in west Oklahoma and J. I. Murray of Coalgate is director for east Oklahoma.

"Every Methodist congregation is hearing about our campaign this month," said Mr. Morgan before leaving his office this week, "and I feel confident the appeal will be received cordially by all. This is the greatest educational movement ever attempted by any church and it will attain the full goal."

The object of the campaign, which is being conducted in sixteen southern states, is to raise $33,000,000 for Christian education purposes and to induce 5,000 or more young men and women to devote the rest of their lives to the ministry, the home or foreign mission field or some other form of Christian work. Oklahoma's quota is $1,189,000, a million of which goes to build a large Methodist college at Tulsa. A large fund is to be set aside to educate worthy applicants who are unable to pay their own way thru college.

HOBART—Promotion of a good road through the Wichita National Forest and Game Preserve was endorsed at a meeting at Copperton, attended by good roads enthusiasts from all sections of the county.

NEWSNOTES FROM MOVIELAND

This story ought to be headed "Listen, Girls, We've Met 'The Perfect Lover,'" or something like that but what I should like to head it that "Listen, Fellows, We've Met Eugene O'Brien and He's a Regular Guy." He came into his sitting room to meet us dressed immaculately in a black double-breasted suit with black tie (the artist told us that) and after introduction all the way around he sat down and talked to us about all kinds of things until he had to be reminded that we wanted to know something about him.

It was hard work getting any bits of personal things out of this young man, for he preferred to entertain us without the aid of the first personal pronoun. Here are a few of the discoveries we made despite his reticence.

He is splendid looking. Perhaps you have known that all along, but we have actually seen his wavy hair and blue eyes.

He loves horses and dogs and his only companion in his charming apartment is his dog, and his horse which he rides daily is "just around the corner."

He loves a perfectly kept home and will never marry a girl who spills powder and rouge about her dressing table. (Flappers adoring Eugene please note.)

Mr. O'Brien is a bit of old Ireland and his sense of humor is delightful. He was born in Colorado but is the first generation to live in this country. He has made pictures on the coast, but prefers New York to any other place on earth.

He feels grateful to pictures, but prefers the stage and wants to return to it soon.

England Wants Her Charlie. England tried without success recently to regain her native son, Charles Chaplin. But, although Chaplin was offered a huge sum to return home and be forgiven, he will remain in the United States.

The offer made Chaplin was staggering in its size. He was offered $20,000 a week, which is at the rate of more than a million a year, for his signature to a theatrical contract for twelve months.

He came back with the following brief but to the point answer: "Your proposition overwhelms me. Sorry I cannot accept it."

Lillian Gish on Stage. In spite of many offers to star in motion pictures, Lillian Gish turns her back on the screen. It is Miss Gish's ambition to add to her artistic reputation by appearing on the stage. Next season may see her a member of Arnold Daly's repertory company. Dorothy Gish, too, intends to turn to the stage. It is said that she and her husband, James Rennie, will play with a Canadian stock company this summer. Both Lillian and Dorothy Gish are anxious to become actresses as well as stars.

Impressive Sermon Preached for High School Senior Class

The most inspiring graduating exercise in history of the Ada High school was held last evening in the Normal auditorium in honor of the graduating seniors. The class will total more than 45 this year.

Dr. N. P. Patterson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, delivered the baccalaureate sermon which was heard by a large and interested audience. Other numbers were also given and the exercises were highly appropriate and successful.

The commencement exercises will be held at the auditorium of the Normal on Friday evening of this week, at which time, Dr. Linscheid will deliver the class address. The Ada High school has a class of young men and women to be proud of this year and they are indeed a credit to the school.

MAGNETIC STORM DOES MUCH DAMAGE ABROAD

(By the Associated Press)
LONDON, May 16.—Telegraph and telephone lines in the British Isles and throughout all northern Europe have been seriously interrupted by the great magnetic storm which virtually paralyzed wire transmission in the United States Saturday and Sunday.

Cables between England and the United States were affected this morning.

Luncheon Tomorrow

The next regular meeting of the Ada Lions Club will be held at the Harris Hotel at the usual hour Tuesday, May 17, and as it will be the first in several weeks, every member of the club is requested to bring himself out and roar once again. Come out and show a little pep. What are you a member of the club for? Just to pay your dues and wear the badge? No, a real live LION will be there with all sails set and lots of pep.

At this meeting the Lions will have as guests the officers of the Good Road Motor Club. After the luncheon those present will adjourn to the hotel parlors where the Motor Club officers will use the business hour as they see fit. The officers who have been invited are N. B. Stall, Pres., H. B. Roach, Sec., and W. M. Emanuel, Jim Coleman and Joe Cole directors. Those who have been attending regularly

Campaign to Start Tomorrow to Raise Money for Starving

"Say it with flour," is the slogan of a campaign to be started in this city tomorrow by the Near East Relief for the starving children of Armenia.

Coin cards, depicting conditions in Armenia will be placed in drug stores, groceries and flour exhibits together with the cards will be placed in banks and large business houses.

A state wide campaign is being carried on at this time and Ada is expected to do her part to relieve the terrible plight of those unfortunate orphans. Bread is assured the staff of life to the children of the Near East, it being their principal diet. A scarcity of flour now exists in Armenia, so when you place a coin in a card you contribute to the life and health of helpless children. This movement has been endorsed by the local chamber of commerce and is under the supervision of C. H. Reeves of the Oklahoma State Bank, who is treasurer for the fund.

"India is going dry."—"Pussy-foot" Johnson.

New Cafe Opens for Business at 123 West Twelfth Street

The De Luxe Cafe is the name of the unique and up-to-date dining room and lunch counter, which opened its doors to the public at 123 West Twelfth, today.

R. S. Norris and S. J. Higginbotham, two former Oklahoma City men with 20 years experience in the hotel and cafe business are the owners of the new business and they have started off in a way that is sure to get results. All of the fixtures and kitchen equipment are brand new and the place is neat and clean.

Both gentlemen have moved here with their families and will make Ada their permanent home. They have charge of the place at 420 East Main, formerly known as "Mrs. Bill's place." Several changes have been made there and the name of the place is now "The Maplehurst Rooms," where they will furnish rooms to those desiring them.

Our guess is that it is about as profitable to a dog to hunt fleas as to follow its master.

FOLKS care about the man who cares about his clothes. A man begins to think more about his future chances when his wardrobe looks its best. There's vigor and vim in the proper grooming. Cleaning and pressing is half the clothes battle, brother.
